Kimberly Kissell Rescigno Named to “20 under 40” by Security Systems News

STAMFORD, CT, December, 2014 - Security Specialists, LLC., a leading systems integrator and full-service solution provider of dynamic, high-performance, integrated life safety, electronic security, video surveillance and communications systems for commercial and residential clients, today announced that Kimberly Kissell Rescigno, director of sales and marketing, was recently selected by Security Systems News for its “20 Under 40” Class of 2014. Each year, the magazine recognizes talented, young professionals within the electronic security industry who display superior leadership, business and technical skills and are on a path to become the next generation of industry leaders. Winners are chosen from hundreds of nominations.

An accomplished professional with over ten years’ experience in various areas of business, Ms. Kissell Rescigno currently leads Security Specialists’ sales, marketing and training initiatives. In her role, she is responsible for outlining and executing the Company’s sales strategy; developing Security Specialists’ channel and sales teams; providing partner and customer training; and establishing long-term strategic relationships within the security industry. Prior to joining Security Specialists, she served in a number of operations management roles with Enterprise Holdings, where she oversaw daily operations at multiple locations, consistently delivering double-digit sales growth.

The recipient of numerous awards throughout her career, including Security Specialists’ Employee of the Year, Ms. Kissell Rescigno currently serves as Chairperson of the newly-formed PSA Security Network Sales and Marketing Committee and holds a Bachelor of Arts degree with Cum Laude honors from Lycoming College.

Ms. Kissell Rescigno will receive her award at a special reception at TechSec Solutions, an industry conference dedicated to new and emerging security technology, which will take place in Delray Beach, Florida, Feb. 3-4, 2015.
